

THE FIRE IS YOURS

lay all aside
starting from low
the trembling inside
takes hold of me slow

I ask myself if what you heard is what I said is this supposed to be the way I'm going mad aah so what so

aah so what so

increasing the heat
you're making me glow
I have you inside
from top to toe

I ask myself if there's a chance for me to escape from what is growing and irresistibly taking shape harmful you are

to me
to me

I got a box
where I keep sin
take me out
put me in
know my needs
all of concern
light me up
until I burn

the fire is yours
